NORMAN, ANTWONE NOWDEN, IVAN PERCY, ERIC C. POWELL, ROLANDO J. REED, aka "Chill," GREGORY T. SAVAGE, SR., KEVIN M. SCOTT, aka "Drew," JAMEZ JAMEL WEBB II, aka "Mez," JAMAL H. WILLIAMS, SHAUN D. WILLIAMS, and RAYMUNDO D. WREN, those defendants conspired to possess with intent to distribute and to distribute at least 1 kilogram or more of a mixture or substance

containing a detectable amount of heroin in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(A). As to defendants BENEDITTO A. BELFIORE, aka "Ditto," STEVENSON BLACK, aka "Black," DOMINIQUE A. BLAIR, JACOB O. DERRICKSON, and LACHELLE T. HALL, those defendants conspired to possess with intent to distribute and to distribute a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of heroin in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C).

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

A. It was part of the conspiracy to distribute heroin to dealers and users in the Cleveland, Ohio area that co-conspirators obtained from suppliers in the Chicago, Illinois; Atlanta, Georgia; and Cleveland, Ohio areas and elsewhere. The co-conspirators concentrated their heroin distribution on the east side of Cleveland.

B. It was further part of the conspiracy that A.M., assisted by L.E., and L.H., and JOVAN FUSSELL obtained large quantities of heroin from suppliers in the Chicago, Illinois area and transported the heroin to Cleveland, Ohio, where it was distributed to heroin dealers such as KENNETH E. HARRIS, GREGORY HAMILTON, DAVID E. MCCALL, JR., PIERRE A. CAMPBELL, and others.

C. It was further part of the conspiracy that KEITH RICKS, BRANDY M. BATES, and DAMMARKRO SHERRON NOLAN, SR.,

obtained heroin from suppliers in the Atlanta, Georgia area and then transported the heroin to Cleveland in the mail or by car. LACHELLE T. HALL assisted BRANDY M. BATES and KEITH RICKS in transporting heroin from Atlanta to Cleveland. MAURICE GOLSTON, DIONTE THOMPSON, LEAMON SHEPHARD, and KEITH RICKS pooled their money together for RICKS to obtain heroin for them in Atlanta. RICKS also obtained heroin from DAMMARKRO SHERRON NOLAN, SR., GREGORY HAMILTON, and other sources in the Cleveland, Ohio area.

D. It was further part of the conspiracy that KEITH RICKS distributed the heroin to other heroin traffickers in Cleveland, Ohio, including LEAMON SHEPHARD, MAURICE GOLSTON, MARCUS BLUE, MACEO MOORE, GREGORY HAMILTON, and ROBERT BELK.

E. It was further part of the conspiracy that LEAMON SHEPHARD obtained heroin from KEITH RICKS and other suppliers, and then distributed the heroin, with the assistance of MICHAEL L. JONES, to heroin distributors including EUGENE MILLER, DOMINIQUE A. BLAIR, DOMINIQUE E. IVORY, MARCUS BLUE, ANTWON EVANS, JERMAINE D. GRAYSON, DANA M. ERVIN, ROBERT L. FOWLKES, JR., DEVONTA P. MAXWELL, BENEDITTO A. BELFIORE, and JACOB O. DERRICKSON. JERMAINE D. GRAYSON, ANTWON EVANS, and MARCUS BLUE also supplied heroin to SHEPHARD.

F. It was further part of the conspiracy that MACEO MOORE obtained heroin from KEITH RICKS and from other sources and then distributed heroin to JAMEZ JAMEL WEBB II, ROLANDO J. REED, and others. TERRANCE FLETCHER also obtained heroin from MACEO MOORE and further distributed heroin.

G. It was further part of the conspiracy that KENNETH E. HARRIS re-distributed the heroin he obtained from A.M. to FREDERICK L. DARLING, STEVENSON BLACK, KEVIN M. SCOTT, GREGORY T. SAVAGE, SR., TERRANCE L. FLETCHER, and other heroin dealers. Following the arrest of A.M. in October 2012, it was further part of the conspiracy that HARRIS obtained heroin from other sources of supply, including EDWARD F. NIX, who also distributed heroin to other dealers, such as DOUGLAS T. JOHNSON.

H. It was further part of the conspiracy that FREDERICK L. DARLING supplied heroin to EUGENE MILLER, THOMAS C. MCCULLY, LUTHER B. JOHNSON, VERNON O. NORMAN, BRENDA H. NORMAN, and others for re-distribution. VERNON O. NORMAN and BRENDA H. NORMAN also introduced new customers to EUGENE MILLER to facilitate the distribution of heroin.

I. It was further part of the conspiracy that EUGENE MILLER obtained heroin for re-distribution and for personal use from other suppliers of heroin such as LUTHER B. JOHNSON, ERIAN J. HARWELL, LEAMON SHEPHARD, and ANDREW E. LOVING.

J. It was further part of the conspiracy that ANDREW E. LOVING and JAMAL H. WILLIAMS worked together to distribute heroin.

K. It was further part of the conspiracy that THOMAS C. MCCULLY obtained heroin from other suppliers of heroin such as MICHAEL BUCHANAN and FREDERICK FERRELL.

L. It was further part of the conspiracy that GREGORY T. SAVAGE, SR. distributed heroin to SHAUN D. WILLIAMS and other heroin dealers, who would then re-distribute the heroin.

M. It was further part of the conspiracy that DAVID E. MCCALL, JR. and LATRICE N. BLEVINS worked together to distribute heroin to other heroin distributors. Specifically, MCCALL and BLEVINS distributed heroin to PIERRE A. CAMPBELL and RAYMUNDO D. WREN.

N. It was further part of the conspiracy that DAVID E. MCCALL, JR. sold heroin to CARL D. AKINS, who redistributed the heroin to others.

O. It was further part of the conspiracy that PIERRE A. CAMPBELL and LAMAR L. MIDDLETON sold heroin to each other in order to ensure that each had a ready supply of heroin for resale. LAMAR L. MIDDLETON supplied heroin to both users and other distributors.

P. It was further part of the conspiracy that PIERRE A. CAMPBELL supplied heroin to VINCENT MORGAN, ANTWONE NOWDEN, DAVID D. HARSLEY, SANDRA L. MILLER, IVAN PERCY, DARNELL ALEXANDER, JR., ERIC C. POWELL, RYLAND L. HARRIS, JR., and CARLTON A. HIGDON, which they then distributed to others.

Q. It was further part of the conspiracy that in order to fund their drug trafficking, to obtain heroin and other controlled substances, and to collect drug-related debts, co-conspirators, including KEITH RICKS, MACEO MOORE, LEAMON SHEPHARD, MARCUS BLUE, MAURICE GOLSTON, DAMMARKRO SHERRON NOLAN, SR., and others planned and committed burglaries, robberies and thefts from other drug dealers or drug customers, and each other. Co-conspirators sold the heroin or other controlled substances at a discounted price. Co-conspirators used the stolen money and other valuables to fund the purchase of heroin for further distribution. Co-conspirators identified potential robbery victims through word of mouth, by observing victims who appeared to have an expensive car or jewelry, by conducting drug transactions directly with the victims prior to a robbery, or by using women who would gather information about potential victims and report back to the conspirators. Co-conspirators conducted surveillance of target locations before committing a robbery. Co-conspirators shared information about potential targets with each other. When committing these robberies, burglaries, and thefts from other drug traffickers, co-conspirators sometimes used weapons and zip ties to restrain victims.

R. It was further part of the conspiracy that the co-conspirators conducted counter-surveillance of law enforcement, shared information with each other about law enforcement presence, and posted sentries to watch for law enforcement and notify conspirators when law enforcement was spotted.

S. It was further part of the conspiracy that the co-conspirators shared information about drug traffickers who had been arrested and obtained court documents regarding the details of drug traffickers' court cases to warn conspirators not to conduct business with the drug traffickers who had been arrested.

T. It was further part of the conspiracy that the co-conspirators conducted drug trafficking activity by using telephones to make and receive telephone calls and to send and receive text or other electronic messages. To reduce the risk of being detected by law enforcement, and to conceal the identity of the person using the device, co-conspirators often used cellular telephones that had been obtained in the names of other persons or in fictitious names. It was further part of the conspiracy that the co-conspirators, when using cellular phones or text messaging to conduct drug trafficking activity, used slang terms, street terminology, or code words or phrases to obscure and to disguise the true nature of their activities and the true meaning of their conversations. Members of the conspiracy also sometimes shared cellular phones and shared the profits of drug sales that resulted from using those phones.

U. It was further part of the conspiracy that some of the co-conspirators would possess and use firearms or other weapons to protect their drug trafficking activities and to commit robberies, burglaries, and home invasions of other drug traffickers.

OVERT ACTS

In furtherance thereof, and to effect the goals and conceal the existence of the conspiracy, the defendants and others performed overt acts in the Northern District of Ohio and elsewhere, including, but not limited to, the following:

1. On or about September 14, 2011, at approximately 2:24 p.m., VERNON O. NORMAN had a conversation with a confidential informant on the telephone. During the call, the informant said, "So that's why I was telling you just, do what you, 'cause it's only, wanna do eight ($80 per gram of heroin). For the brown (heroin)?" VERNON O. NORMAN replied, "It might go for that." The informant said, "Okay, you, you got, I ain't got time to be wickey-wickey and now. I mean, you know." VERNON O. NORMAN said, "Just give me nine ($90 per gram of heroin), I know that. Just give me nine ($90 per gram of heroin). Give me nine ($90 per gram) for the brown (heroin). If it be any different, I do it, and it shouldn't be no different. I, if do, I just won't get it, that's all." The informant agreed, "Okay, hey check this out. Okay, you got nine on you. ..."

2. On or about September 14, 2011, at approximately 3:38 p.m., VERNON O. NORMAN and a confidential informant had a conversation on the telephone. During the conversation, VERNON O. NORMAN asked, "You don't want to take a dog (heroin) on a test run (try a sample of the heroin), do ya? You don't?" The confidential informant replied, "I'll get it done. I know how I'm doing that. Uh-huh. Jason is waiting to do that for me (test the heroin). That's why I gotta, I gotta catch a train down to the airport, so I'm gonna grab it from you, get Jason to do what he gotta do (test the heroin) and then I'm gonna go on down there cause I gotta catch the thirty nine (bus). Huh?" Later in the conversation, after the confidential informant explained about catching the train and when they would meet, the confidential informant said, "So when you see me, just have it (heroin), and I'll give you your cash. You go on." VERNON O. NORMAN replied, "Okay, okay."

3. On or about September 16, 2011, VERNON O. NORMAN met with an undercover officer and agreed to sell the undercover officer one ounce of heroin.

4. On or about September 19, 2011, VERNON O. NORMAN met with an undercover officer in order to sell the undercover officer one ounce of heroin. VERNON O. NORMAN told the undercover officer that the money would have to be provided immediately, but VERNON O. NORMAN would provide the heroin to the undercover officer the next day. The undercover officer demanded the heroin be provided at the same time VERNON O. NORMAN received the money. VERNON O. NORMAN then called BRENDA H. NORMAN to find out if she had the heroin available. BRENDA H. NORMAN told VERNON O. NORMAN she would check into it.

5. On or about September 22, 2011, EUGENE MILLER and BRENDA H. NORMAN distributed approximately 27.64 grams of heroin that had been supplied by LEAMON SHEPHARD to an undercover officer at MILLER's residence on Bryant Avenue in Cleveland, Ohio.

6. On or about November 14, 2011, EUGENE MILLER and BRENDA H. NORMAN sold approximately 27.84 grams of heroin supplied by FREDERICK L. DARLING to an undercover officer at MILLER's residence on Bryant Avenue in Cleveland, Ohio.

7. On or about November 14, 2011, FREDERICK L. DARLING possessed approximately 2.75 grams of heroin and $5,700 in cash.

8. On or about November 21, 2011, EUGENE MILLER sold approximately 25.84 grams of heroin to an undercover officer.

9. On or about November 22, 2011, GREGORY HAMILTON possessed a hydraulic press used for compressing heroin, heroin cutting agent, and heroin residue in Bedford, Ohio.

10. On or about January 12, 2012, DAVID E. MCCALL, JR. sold .4 grams of heroin to a confidential informant in Cleveland, Ohio.

11. On or about January 18, 2012, DAVID E. MCCALL, JR., and RAYMUNDO D. WREN were in a home with 192.66 grams of heroin, 48.5 grams of cocaine, a .380 caliber Llama handgun, a digital scale with heroin residue, a food chopper with heroin residue, and a drug press with heroin residue.

12. On or about June 4, 2012, EUGENE MILLER sold approximately 27.44 grams of heroin to an undercover officer at MILLER's residence on Bryant Avenue in Cleveland, Ohio.

13. On or about June 12, 2012, MACEO MOORE made the following statements to an undercover officer:

- (a) When asked by the undercover officer about robbing other drug dealers, MOORE engaged in the following exchange:

QUESTION: You guys did it a lot?

MOORE: Yeah, that was our job, kicking doors.

QUESTION: How many days did you work?

MOORE: We worked every day, around the clock. If you had it, and we wanted it, we was coming to get it.

QUESTION: For how many years?

MOORE: St, It ain't never, it don't stop. That's what it was, that's what it is.

- (b) MOORE was asked how he and his associates chose their robbery targets. MOORE explained that it was routine for he and his associates to identify robbery targets who boasted about, or flaunted, the wealth that they had accumulated through drug trafficking. MOORE explained that on certain occasions, they would solicit the assistance of "a female," who would befriend their target, and attempt to manipulate the target to provide her with personal information that MOORE could use to decide when, where, and how to follow through on their plans to rob him. MOORE concluded by saying, "Now we know where he live at, we gonna go pay him a visit." He added, "It's like, I could see a dude at the club. He buying and poppin' bottles, he got his jewelry on, he on the list, he gonna get it."

(c) MOORE was asked about how many people he would bring with him when committing a robbery. MOORE replied, "One or two. 'Cause like I said, anything can go wrong. I ain't takin' no ten guys on me to do nothing like that. Going into them situations, the average dude don't have it in his head, 'we going in to kill.' But, it can lead to that. Anything can go wrong in a robbery."

(d) MOORE was asked how much money can be made selling drugs. MOORE replied, "You can make a million dollars!" He added, "I sold drugs, but I started getting more money when I started taking from the drug dealers. That's how, honestly, that's how I got my money. I sold drugs, but I always been the hustler, so I sold drugs, I find out such and such over here got it, they doing good, well, we going to get that. Flat out, we going to get it." MOORE was then asked if these robberies were committed to steal money, or to steal drugs. MOORE replied, "Whatever they got. Money, jewelry, drugs, whatever they got, we going to get it. Flatout." MOORE confirmed he used stolen money to purchase the drugs that he sold. MOORE also clarified that the drugs he sold were usually stolen drugs, stating, "No, actually, when I got them drugs for sale, I gave them away on a discount, when I got they drugs for sale. For real."

14. On or about June 15, 2012, PIERRE A. CAMPBELL possessed a loaded Beretta 9mm semi-automatic handgun bearing serial number PZ24341 and 170.5 grams of heroin in Euclid, Ohio.

15. On or about August 8, 2012, at approximately 12:41 p.m., EUGENE MILLER called LUTHER B. JOHNSON on the telephone. During the conversation, MILLER stated, "Yeah, what's happenin'?" JOHNSON answered, "What 'posed to be happenin'?" MILLER replied, "I don't know, st. I'm just asking you, st, na. I'm getting ready to head over there." JOHNSON stated, "Yeah, for what?" MILLER's reply was unintelligible. JOHNSON stated, "You ain't come get my motherfking clothes, mother fker, you was supposed to came got 'em." MILLER stated, "Well, I get the motherfkers today." JOHNSON replied, "Yeah, cuz you want something (heroin). That's all it is. Any time you want something (heroin), that's the only time you come around, when you want something, man." MILLER replied, "That's bullst, man! . . . " Later in the conversation, MILLER stated, "Me and you got some business going. Uh, which ain't got nothing to do with what I'm doing with . . . " JOHNSON replied, "We, um- we, um- how in the fk we got business going, motherfker, when you only come around when you want something (heroin)?"

16. On or about August 8, 2012, at approximately 6:35 p.m., LUTHER B. JOHNSON called EUGENE MILLER on the telephone. JOHNSON stated, "Yeah, man, I'm fittin' to come out, man (to sell heroin to MILLER)." MILLER replied, "Oh, alright, call me when you get in the driveway, alright?"

17. On or about August 11, 2012, at approximately 12:22 p.m., LUTHER B. JOHNSON called EUGENE MILLER on the telephone. During the conversation, MILLER stated, "What's up, killa?" JOHNSON answered, "Man, you bring my st (money) today, man?" MILLER replied, "What is you talkin' about, na? I called you yesterday." Later in the conversation, JOHNSON stated, "Hey, man, I told you, man, about to come get those fkin' clothes, man, see, man, you full of st, man." MILLER replied, "Nah." JOHNSON stated, "You done got what you wanted (heroin) and didn't come get them fkin clothes, Hubert (JOHNSON)." MILLER stated, "Ner, I been by there yesterday, go ahead on."

18. On or about August 13, 2012, at approximately 12:43 p.m., EUGENE MILLER called FREDERICK L. DARLING on the telephone. During the conversation, MILLER told DARLING that his cousin came in from out of town. MILLER stated that he wanted "to come over there and holler at you (to purchase heroin)." DARLING stated, "Alright, I'm down (have heroin with me at my house)." MILLER replied, "Okay, I'm about to head that way in, ah, ten minutes."

19. On or about August 13, 2012, at approximately 1:29 p.m., an undercover officer spoke with EUGENE MILLER on the telephone and arranged to purchase two ounces of heroin from MILLER for $6,400. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:10 p.m., EUGENE MILLER drove from his residence to FREDERICK L. DARLING's residence on Linwood Avenue, in Cleveland, Ohio, to obtain heroin. MILLER entered DARLING's residence and purchased approximately 53.47 grams of heroin from DARLING. MILLER then returned to his own residence where he sold the heroin to the undercover officer.

20. On or about August 14, 2012, at approximately 10:48 a.m., EUGENE MILLER called LUTHER B. JOHNSON on the telephone and told him that he was coming to see him soon (to purchase heroin).

21. On or about August 15, 2012, at approximately 9:43 a.m., an undercover officer contacted EUGENE MILLER on the telephone to arrange the purchase of two ounces of heroin from MILLER. Almost immediately afterward, at approximately 9:44 a.m., EUGENE MILLER called FREDERICK L. DARLING on the telephone. During the conversation, MILLER stated, "Yeah, we gotta have lunch again today (meet for a heroin transaction)." Did- did BRENDA (NORMAN) uh, did you want BRENDA to look up somethin'?" DARLING answered, "Yeah, I got them papers, where she at?" MILLER replied, "She at work now." DARLING stated, "Yeah, I need to get them papers, damn, I was just over the scrap yard, st." MILLER replied, "Hey, well, I got to come right over (to buy heroin), soon as I get off work, you know?" DARLING answered, "Alright." MILLER replied, "Yeah, same, (two ounces of heroin) have lunch so, we havin' lunch (we are going to meet)." DARLING asked, "That's the quarter?" MILLER answered, "Okay." DARLING asked, "But hey?" MILLER answered, "Yeah?" DARLING asked, "What's happenin' (how much heroin do you want)?" MILLER stated, "Same thing (two ounces of heroin)." DARLING asked, "Same, like, same sandwiches (same quantity and type of heroin)?" MILLER answered, "Yep, yeah." DARLING stated, "Alright."

22. On or about August 15, 2012, at approximately 1:27 p.m., BRENDA H. NORMAN called THOMAS C. MCCULLY on the telephone and left him a voice message which stated, "Hey, Cully, this is BRENDA, call Joker's (EUGENE MILLER's) phone so we can find out where and when we can go to get those mattresses (two ounces of heroin). Call, OK? Bye." Later that day, FREDERICK L. DARLING supplied EUGENE MILLER with approximately 54.76 grams of heroin, which MILLER then sold to an undercover officer.

23. On or about August 17, 2012, at approximately 3:14 p.m., EUGENE MILLER called ERIAN J. HARWELL on the telephone. During the conversation, MILLER stated, "You know I made some money (from selling heroin), right? And I'm--I'm so glad that I made this money now I got all this time off and you know? I ain't too much worried 'cause I'm sitting on some little bank, ya know?"

24. On or about August 18, 2012, at approximately 11:31 a.m., EUGENE MILLER called ERIAN J. HARWELL on the telephone. During the conversation, MILLER stated, "What's up, big dog? You tha man, come and see me." HARWELL responded, "What you talking about (how much heroin)? So I can get you together (so I can have it ready for you)?" MILLER responded, "40 ($40 worth of heroin)." HARWELL answered, "Yep." and MILLER again said, "40 ($40 worth of heroin)." HARWELL stated, "Alright." and

MILLER asked, "Alright, how long?" HARWELL replied, "I'm on my way right now." MILLER stated, "OK."

25. On or about August 20, 2012, at approximately 11:25 a.m, EUGENE MILLER called ERIAN J. HARWELL on the telephone. During the conversation, HARWELL asked, "What's up with it (How much heroin do you need)?" MILLER replied, "20 ($20 worth of heroin)." They agreed to meet later that day. On August 20, 2012, at approximately 3:10 p.m., EUGENE MILLER and ERIAN J. HARWELL met at MILLER's residence to conduct the heroin transaction.

26. On or about August 21, 2012, L.E. and L.H., at the direction of A.M., individuals known to the Grand Jury but not charged herein, picked up approximately 5.658 kilograms of heroin in Joliet, Illinois, for the purpose of transporting the heroin to Cleveland, Ohio, for distribution by the co-conspirators named herein.

27. On or about August 23, 2012, at approximately 11:39 a.m., EUGENE MILLER called ERIAN J. HARWELL on the telephone, and asked HARWELL to come meet him. BLEVINS replied, "I know who this is, Slim. I'm handling Dave's phone, so I was wondering I could help you." HARRIS replied, "Oh, okay, you handling his phone and running the store (conducting drug transactions), too?" BLEVINS replied, "Yeah." HARRIS stated, "Okay, uh . . ." BLEVINS laughs. HARRIS continued, "I got you, I got you. Oh, I want to get to the ball game here. You hear me?" BLEVINS replied, "Okay, I hear you. What you need?" HARRIS replied, "Uh, eight ball (3.5 grams of heroin). BLEVINS stated, "Okay, let me - didn't you call yesterday? Did you call me yesterday?" HARRIS stated, "Yeah, I sure did, but time got away from me. You know, and - and I got, that guy Slim (RAYMUNDO D. WREN), or P (PIERRE A. CAMPBELL) or whoever the cousin supposed to be." BLEVINS replied, "Uh-huh." HARRIS stated, "Yeah, I mean, everything was all right on the, on the size and st but that action wasn't st (the weight of the heroin was correct, but the quality was poor)." BLEVINS replied, "Oh, okay." HARRIS continued, "That action wasn't st. I needed something that's going, you know, do what it's supposed to do (make his heroin customers high)." BLEVINS responded, "Exactly." HARRIS stated, "You know, yeah, you ain't gotta make me a cake or nothing, you know, what I mean, just, it ain't gotta be all like that (the heroin doesn't have to look perfect). Just long as do what is supposed to do (so long as it makes my customers high)." BLEVINS replied, "Exactly." HARRIS continued, "Yeah, and I want to look before I leap (try the heroin before I buy a larger quantity), you know what I mean? Were you with him when he came down Bender?" BLEVINS replied, "Uh-uh, I wasn't with him but, was it real, was it (the heroin) real light colored? Or was (the heroin) butter colored?" HARRIS replied, "Yeah, yeah. It was light tannish. It was almost beige. Damn near white. I want something dark and ugly (strong), you know?" BLEVINS stated, "I feel ya." HARRIS asked, "Yeah, yeah, you got that (dark colored and strong heroin)?" BLEVINS replied, "What are you, what did he charge you? 'Cause I got the dark and ugly." HARRIS stated, "Okay, uh, if you go the dark and ugly then, uh, the last time I got an eight ball (3.5 grams) from he charged me three ($300). You know." BLEVINS stated, "Oh." HARRIS continued, "And an eight ball is like three and a half (3.5 grams of heroin) whew wee, this- this is ugly conversation (it is dangerous to openly discuss drug transactions over the telephone) like this. Um, three and a half g's for three (3.5 grams for $300). BLEVINS stated, "Slim-". HARRIS stated, "Uh-." BLEVINS continued, "I fitting to call you from another phone (I'm going to call you from another phone to ensure that the conversation is not being intercepted by law enforcement)." GOLSTON said, "I can't go over there, you know I can't go over there. I beat they brother up." RICKS said, "No, blow the horn. Be like, 'Man, what I supposed to tell him, you know, that na get mad.' You know what I'm saying?" GOLSTON said, "Alright." RICKS said, "Then, you know what I'm saying? Then that will get me okay, you know, if he say, yeah, it's you, that will give me okay to like, when I see him, I ain't got to talk. Feel me?" GOLSTON said, "Yeah, alright." RICKS continued, "And I'm gonna be right there with his pockets out, you know what I'm saying? I know where the stash spot (location where drugs and money are stored), where his stash spot's at." GOLSTON said, "Alright."

250. On or about April 16, 2013, at approximately 2:15 p.m., KEITH RICKS called MARCUS BLUE on the telephone. During the call, RICKS and BLUE discussed a possible robbery target RICKS had been scouting. RICKS said, "It ain't mission impossible, but it gonna be hard, bro." BLUE said, "Why, 'cause that fence?" RICKS said, "I checked everything out. I'm gonna talk to you 'bout it when I see you." Later in the conversation, BLUE and RICKS discussed another possible robbery target. RICKS said, "Hey, oh yeah, too, damn! I seen Wash, I seen Washington. He was at the barbershop, right." BLUE said, "Yeah." RICKS said, "Do you think that bitch would keep something in his car, man?" BLUE said, "Do I think what?" RICKS said, "You think bitch be keeping that st (heroin) in his car or some st? It was parked in the parking lot where he couldn't see. He couldn't see if I was to bust a window out.

He couldn't see. I'd be cool." BLUE said, "I don't know. He probably be having some paper (money) in there." RICKS said, "What you think?" BLUE said, "Mmm." RICKS said, "Probably have some paper (money) in there?" BLUE said, "Yeah."

251. On or about April 16, 2013, at approximately 5:12 p.m., KEITH RICKS pulled up next to a vehicle that he had seen parked near his house and then followed, calling and asking others if they knew who was in the car. RICKS honked his horn and knocked on the driver's window and asked, "Hey, why you sitting in front my people's house?" RICKS told the driver, "Hey, hold on. Alright, alright, alright. Ain't no disrespect. Naw, naw, nas be around there robbing, doing some bullst. You know what I'm saying? And the only reason we came out 'cause we see car parked." Further, RICKS explained, "Okay, okay. Naw, we just, mother-fkers be around there doing some bullst, you know what I'm saying? I seen the car and ain't nobody hop out. You know what I'm saying? I was just checking to see what's going on." After being satisfied with the driver's response, RICKS let the driver leave in his car.

During the call, Mack said, "Yeah, we couldn't get through them yards. We gonna have to go around." RICKS said, "You said what? You said what? Man, listen, you gonna need to hop this fence. Y'all can have a straight shot in one of them yards. You know, trust me. Hey listen, hello?" Mack said, "Yeah." RICKS said, "Yeah, listen, listen, listen bro, bro, bro, listen, listen you need to go to the yard across the street, you hear me?" Mack said, "Uh-huh." RICKS said, "Listen, tell Adrian: if he see him, come out with a bat, na, make that na drop that bitch and grab that bitch and come to the car na." RICKS continued to give instructions, "Go in the yard, go in the yard across from his. Like, listen, listen, you know where I dropped you off at?" Mack said, "Yeah." RICKS said, "Listen, all you to do is go through one of them back yards. You go through one of them back yards. I did it before." Later in the call, it became clear the target of the robbery had just left. Mack said, "Lookin' for his house. That car gone, cuz, that car gone. RICKS said, "Damn man, you all took too fking long, man." Mack confirmed, "That car gone, cuz." RICKS said, "Damn, man." RICKS said, "He pulling off, he pullin' off right now."

254. On or about April 18, 2013, at approximately 10:10 a.m., MARCUS BLUE called KEITH RICKS on the telephone. During the call, RICKS complained to BLUE that a robbery attempt the previous night had failed. RICKS said, "Man, these nas man, this, man, man, man, I had a, I had a, I had a good one, but these nas fked it up, man."

255. On or about April 18, 2013, at approximately 8:32 p.m., KEITH RICKS called MARCUS BLUE on the telephone. During the call, RICKS asked, "What's up?" BLUE said, "This st some show and tell (showing a heroin supplier money to arrange a later purchase of heroin), but I'm about to go on this st for sure, bro. I'm about to go right here, man." RICKS said, "So, so, so, listen, listen, listen. I, I, I ain't fk with no, I ain't got no fking money for no show and tell. I ain't doing no show and tell."

256. On or about April 18, 2013, at approximately 8:51 p.m., KEITH RICKS called MARCUS BLUE on the telephone. During the call, RICKS complained to BLUE that BLUE had sent him to the wrong address to commit a robbery the previous night. During the call, RICKS said, "I'll tell you what this man said: 'You sent me on a dummy street, man.' Come on man." BLUE responded, "Okay, how am I gonna sent you on a dummy street when we both know that is the street, bro. I said, I don't know the house. That is what I told the na."

257. On or about April 19, 2013, at approximately 11:43 a.m., MAURICE GOLSTON called KEITH RICKS on the telephone. RICKS told GOLSTON, "That na Lee, pushed up on me right, he like, 'I have a sweet one' right?" According to RICKS, "Lee" said, "They (MOORE and J.J.) missed it." RICKS said he asked "Lee," "What they miss?" According to RICKS, "Lee" answered that, "[T]hey missed sixty thousand ($60,000) and a mink coat, and there was a door behind a suit rack that had seven hundred and thirty thousand." RICKS then explained to GOLSTON that he asked "Lee," "Who missed it?" "Lee" responded that "Paper" (MACEO MOORE) had missed it. RICKS then complained to GOLSTON about the fact that MOORE had apparently planned such a large robbery and not included RICKS, saying, "...it happened two weeks ago! You know what I'm saying? I was here (in Cleveland, not Atlanta)! You know what I'm saying? Like, then we was just kicking it! You know what I'm saying?" RICKS explained that "Lee" reiterated that the robbery was still available for them to do. According to RICKS, "Lee" told him, "Listen, it's still a go. My people will find out where it's at and I'ma call you." RICKS explained further, "So I'm thinking this through, I'm like, who did Paper (MACEO MOORE) take? He took some other nas? Or off brand nas?" GOLSTON replied, "Of course he did."

Later in the call, RICKS explained, "You know what I'm saying, so my little ner say like, you know what I'm saying, he talking to Mun. Mun be like, ner, know what I'm sayin', this the guardsman, this ner got it! Woo woo! Like, you know what I'm saying? My little ner say every time he be talking to Mun, Mun be over the ner house, and be asking ner like, damn, what's we counting money, ner, these the money counters." MOORE responded, "Right." RICKS continued, "So like he, ner like, so scared he ain't going, he ain't going nowhere. You know what I'm saying?" MOORE agreed, "Right." RICKS concluded, "So, so you know what I'm saying everything they do (conducting drug trafficking business) they still doing it there! Now he ain't leaving." MOORE asked, "Where?" RICKS replied, "Same spot (the same place where RICKS robbed him before)!" MOORE then asked, "So what's up with it?" RICKS replied, "Man, you already know! What time you coming down?" MOORE replied, "St, st, what's up?" RICKS answered, "Man, come down so I can tell you what's up. How long? I'm on 118th. How long 'till you come down?" MOORE answered, "St, I can come now for real." RICKS said, "Alright, come on, hurry up." MOORE responded, "Alright, here I come."

All of them like, damn B, you never say you know you good for it. I give you the bread (money), but you gonna have to give me a few days right. Which I ain't tripping like, alright, I ain't tripping that of course, like, but the mother-fkers who I been talking to I know got that st. You know what I'm saying? So, it's like them mother-fkers like, 'you know what I'm saying, B?' I'm like, 'cause I really can do st with the—you know me. You—what I talked to you about. We can really go do that st (heroin), but I'm like, 'I'm not fking with nobody up here.' Like, 'If I come up here and tell y'all I got this move, this opportunity, that y'all mother-fkers, it's, it's fking rocket science man. You can't do nothing but win, you know. What I'm saying, and you can win over everybody and be the only mother-fker with this plug (source of heroin).' St, I'm a have it. I'm like, man, if I gotta go out there, if it just be me and you, if I gotta go out there, man, I'm not fking with nobody in Cleveland. And if I am 'bout to pay six racks (a quantity of money)." RICKS responded, "Man, listen, we talking too much on the phone." BATES said, "Oh, yeah."

I got seven (a quantity of money) for you right now if you want it." RICKS said, "Just come through." BELK said, "Alright."

268. On or about May 6, 2013, at approximately 6:14 p.m., KEITH RICKS called DAMMARKRO SHERRON NOLAN, SR., to warn him that L.D., aka "Head," a person known to the Grand Jury but not charged herein, had been arrested for drug trafficking. RICKS asked, "You ain't mess with (deal with) no hundred five nas (drug traffickers from East 105th Street, Cleveland, Ohio), did you?" NOLAN said, "Huh?" RICKS said, "You never mess with no hundred five nas, did you?" NOLAN said, "Uh-uh, why?" RICKS said, "Nah, nah, nah, one of those nas got knocked (arrested) and he ain't tell nobody. My na about to send my na the paperwork. He just go knocked on the 27th (April 27, 2013).

The na name, uh, when y'all went to All Star weekend he was down there with you all." NOLAN said, "Which one was it?" RICKS said, "His name 'Head.'" NOLAN said, "Head, Head." RICKS said, "He be with that na Tez and them." NOLAN said, "What he look like?" RICKS said, "He bald head. I think he got a Bentley too. I think he just got a Bentley or something. But he got a red Escalade. But he ain't tell nobody he got knocked (arrested) though. My na, the na about to send him the paperwork. Na got knocked with a brick (kilogram) of heroin, a brick (kilogram) of coke, two-hundred and fifty thousand in cash ($250,000.00) and a .40 cal (firearm) on the 27th of April."

269. On May 6, 2013, at approximately 6:26 p.m., KEITH RICKS called MACEO MOORE on the telephone. RICKS explained to MOORE that someone was bringing him the "paperwork" related to the recent arrest of "Head" from East 105th Street. RICKS explained, "Man, that na got caught with a brick (kilogram) of heroin, a brick of cocaine, and $260,000, and a pistol." MOORE responded, "For real?" RICKS stated, "Hell yeah, and he ain't told nobody out here." MOORE assured RICKS that he was aware of "Head's" arrest, adding, "He got hit on the freeway." RICKS asked, "So, what happened though?" MOORE told RICKS "Call me, call me. I'm gonna talk to you when I see you." They then agreed to meet.

273. On or about May 9, 2013, R.B., a person known to the Grand Jury but not charged herein, called KEITH RICKS on the telephone. During the call, R.B. explained to RICKS that the F.B.I. had a warrant for R.B.'s arrest. R.B. claimed not to know why, "I wasn't fking with nobody, man. I been dead broke, man. I wasn't playin' (trafficking in drugs)." So this, you know, this probably some old st, "Cuz," from Cali (California). Probably. Or it might be even Weezy (BRANDY M.

BATES), man. I don't know, man. I don't know. I ain't even tripping man." RICKS said, "Man, for real?" Later in the call, RICKS and R.B. speculated on who might have cooperated with the F.B.I. RICKS asked, "Damn man, what the fk? So you say you think it's Weezy (BRANDY M. BATES) or your cousin from Cali?" R.B. said, "I think it's "Cuz" from Cali, you know I ain't even gonna put Weezy (BRANDY M. BATES) in there. I think it's "Cuz" from Cali." RICKS said, "For real?" R.B. said, "Straight up like that." RICKS said, "Y'all was fking around (dealing in drugs with each other)?" R.B. said, "Huh?" RICKS said, "I mean, I thought you all weren't even ..." R.B. said, "You know that na been in the fed's joint (federal prison). But you know, remember, remember when he fked me up and he, he fked up, got my money fked up and Black T (TERRANCE FLETCHER) money all fked up?" RICKS said, "Yeah." R.B. said, "They thought I had booked (robbed) Black T (TERRANCE FLETCHER), man. He probably would talk. He probably was settin' me up then. Ain't no telling."

274. On or about May 12, 2013, at approximately 6:26 p.m., KEITH RICKS called DAMMARKRO SHERRON NOLAN, SR., on the telephone. During the call, NOLAN told RICKS he would soon be flying to Atlanta, Georgia. RICKS said, "This week. Oh, okay, what, um, will that still be a go with your peoples (heroin suppliers) down there?" NOLAN said, "Yes, sir. 'Cause I'm gonna do it myself down there (buy the heroin myself)." RICKS said, "Huh?" NOLAN repeated, "I'm gonna do it myself down there." RICKS said, "Okay, bet. I'm gonna grab some paper (money) and know what I'm saying, and I'm gonna bring it down there." NOLAN said, "Okay. Hey, man, uh, st, man, man, make something happen for us, man. I'm, you know, I'm trying to lead you in the direction. You know?" Later in the call, NOLAN said, "I need you to come through for us one time, baby." NOLAN and RICKS agreed to meet soon. RICKS explained, "Alright, alright, I'm waiting on BRANDY (BATES) to come pick me up. Then we'll meet up."

275. On or about May 13, 2013, at approximately 1:30 p.m., ROBERT BELK sent KEITH RICKS a text message about paying RICKS money BELK owed in which BELK complained about the pace of drug deals, that said, "It was slow is fk yesterday I got u." The next day, May 14, 2013, at approximately 3:14 a.m., RICKS sent BELK a text message complaining that the money that BELK had paid RICKS, believed to be $1,000, was short. The text message said, "She said its 985 ($985)." BELK responded by sending a text message to RICKS at 3:35 a.m. that said, "I miss counted then I be ready in min."

276. On or about May 16, 2013, at approximately 11:29 p.m., KEITH RICKS called MARCUS BLUE on the telephone. During the call, RICKS and BLUE discussed R.B., who had recently turned himself in to face federal drug charges. RICKS speculated that the arrest showed R.B. had been lying to him and others he owed money to about not having any money because the charges showed R.B. had still been trafficking in drugs. RICKS said, "I was with Mace (MACEO MOORE) and st. And he, he (R.B.) was scared that um, like man, he was like, man, Mace (MACEO MOORE) ain't going to tell Black T (TERRANCE FLETCHER), 'cause I think he, Mace (MACEO MOORE), uh, Fatboy (R.B.) owe Black T (TERRANCE FLETCHER) like seven bands ($7,000)." BLUE responded, "He (R.B.) is, he definitely in some fed hole, that was Monday. So he ain't downtown. They probable moved somewhere else now." RICKS said, "Swear. Damn. Fatman, Fatboy (R.B.), that's my dude." BLUE said, "Yeah, that's crazy." RICKS said, "Yeah, Fatboy (R.B.) my dude, though."

WEBB did not answer but then called the confidential informant back a few minutes later. During the conversation, the confidential informant told WEBB, "I ran out of that (heroin), man. I need some, I need to re-up." WEBB said, "What was you talkin' about?" The confidential informant said, "Like fourteen (14 grams of heroin). I made a little something off of it. Can you make it a little better though (higher quality heroin)?" WEBB replied, "Yeah, um, you say, that's how much you want? Fourteen (14 grams of heroin)?" The confidential informant replied, "Yeah, fourteen (14 grams of heroin), I've got fourteen hundred ($1,400)."

311. On or about June 3, 2013, at approximately 12:48 p.m., JAMEZ JAMEL WEBB II called MACEO MOORE on the telephone. During the call, WEBB said, "You remember the one play (heroin transaction) from the other day?" MOORE replied, "Yeah". WEBB said, "He just called back," MOORE replied, "For real?" WEBB continued, "Yeah, but he got four hundred ($400) more." MOORE replied, "Alright, I'm about to call you right back." Within seconds of the conclusion of that call, and for the next several minutes, MOORE attempted to call J.J., a person known to the Grand Jury but not charged herein. At approximately 12:53 p.m., MOORE called WEBB back. WEBB asked MOORE, "Is it over (is the heroin gone)?" MOORE replied, "No, it ain't, but my people (J.J.) didn't answer the phone. I'm trying to, um, give them a call right quick. I'ma call you right as soon ..." WEBB answered "Alright." At approximately 12:58 p.m., MOORE talked to J.J. on the telephone. During the call, MOORE said, "St, I need to holla at you (see you), it ain't over, is it (is the heroin gone)?" J.J. said, "Um, no, not really." J.J. asked MOORE where he was, and MOORE replied, "Yeah, I'm on 85th, but um, somebody just called me . . . remember when I kept coming back and forth (to obtain heroin)." MOORE asked again, "That's over (is the heroin gone)?" J.J. said, "It's a little, about, a hundred and five, on the fifth (five grams of heroin for $105 per gram)." At approximately 1:02 p.m., MOORE called WEBB back. WEBB asked, "It's over with?" MOORE replied, "No, uh . . . only got five (grams of heroin)." WEBB said, "Fk, damn, it's somewhere close where I can go get it?" MOORE said, "Um, no. How soon he (the confidential informant) gonna be down there?" WEBB responded, "St, he right here. I'm about to just take this st, man (rob the confidential informant)." MOORE advised, "You might need 'em the next time (as a future heroin customer)." WEBB responded, "Yeah, but st, I ain't got nobody who's got nothing (enough heroin) right now." MOORE asked, "You said he's right there?" WEBB replied, "Yeah," MOORE said, "Ah, well, st then. Be careful." WEBB responded, "Ok."

312. On or about June 4, 2013, at approximately 11:43 a.m., MAURICE GOLSTON called MACEO MOORE on the telephone. During the call, GOLSTON complained to MOORE that they no longer had a "spot" to use for drug trafficking. GOLSTON complained, "But these nas don't even respect having a spot like, y'all nas stupid." MOORE advised, "You have to get another one somewhere." GOLSTON said, "Huh?"
